THE PRESIDENT IN CHARLESTON.

The President, or any one, could not have expected a warmer or heartier welcome than was accorded him on Tuesday and Wednesday during his visit to Charleston. "President's Day" was a great day for the country and a great day for the Exposition. It was the anniversary of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. Thirty-seven years ago, on April 9, 1865, the Southern Army laid down its arms and the Southern Confederacy passed away. On April 9, 1902, the President of the United States, by political faith of the Republican party, visited in Charleston one of the greatest Expositions ever held in this country, and on his every appearance was cheered to the echo by the Southern people. Nothing could show more strongly that the wounds created by the civil war have been healed, that the ties that bind together every section of this country are stronger than ever before, than this visit of President Roosevelt to the Charleston Exposition and the cordial greetings extended him throughout the South. Nothing could show more clearly the wonderful material progress made by the South since 1865 than the Exposition which he visited.

Altogether it was a memorable occasion, and one that will be remembered by those who were present. During the day fully fifty thousand people, representing almost every State in the Union, visited the grounds, and the Exposition people were greatly encouraged and strengthened in their efforts.

The president's speech was timely and appropriate. In fact, we believe every incident connected with his visit has brought every section of this country closer to every other, and that the President himself has returned to his duties with a better understanding of the conditions in the South, and of the Southern people.

The fight for cutting down the number of campaign meetings is still going on, though it is hardly probable that it will amount to anything. It seems that the present plan of county-to-county campaigns has come to stay. However, we believe there is no doubt that campaigns in this State would be conducted on a higher plane, and that much good would be accomplished in every way, if there were fewer meetings. Only a very small portion of the people in the various counties attend the meetings anyway. They very largely depend upon the newspaper reports of the speeches for the views of the candidates, and if a candidate has any decided views at all, his speech cannot be materially changed from day to day. One meeting in each congressional district, at some central point in the district, would be enough and more than enough, and the chance for electing the best men to office would not be diminished in the least. On the contrary, we believe it would be very largely increased.

There has been much speculation in regard to the probable action of Gov. McSweeney with reference to the prize fight in Charleston between Fitzsimmons and Jeffries, and the promoters of this fight have proceeded with their arrangements upon the assumption that the governor would not interfere. The law is plain and unequivocal, and to our mind there is no room for speculation as to the course of Gov. McSweeney, who has just announced that he will direct the sheriff of Charleston to prevent the prize fight, and if necessary he will order the militia to enforce the law. It is inconceivable that the governor of South Carolina could do anything else under the circumstances—Greenville Mountaineer.

It is simply a matter of carrying out the law as it exists upon the statute books, and with the making of which the governor had nothing whatever to do. We believe that even the Charleston people who were interested in having the fight pulled off in Charleston, respect the governor more for the course he has taken in the matter. His personal inclinations have nothing whatever to do with the matter. His duty is to carry out the law.

Long Lane Items.

Wheat is looking fine, and good stands of spring oats.

Long Lane is on a boom in the land business. Mr. C. K. Baker has bought a fine plantation from Mr. George Mower, known as the Jim Fair place, 600 acres.

Mr. Coot Rikard lost a very fine cow a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Suber and little daughter Frances and Miss Eula were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ramage Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Suber is visiting in Bethlehem section.

The children in Long Lane had a fine time hunting Easter eggs.

Mr. Johnny Baker has been quite sick but I am glad to note he is better.

Mrs. Gertrude King and son Charley are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ramage.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Suber spent the night with their daughter Mrs. Charley Suber recently.

Long Lane is about through planting early corn and has commenced planting cotton.

Long Lane school is about out, then the children will have a big time fishing for the little fish in Indian Creek. Kooty Head.

Why Take Any Chances

with some new and untried medicine for such serious troubles as diarrhoea, cramps, dysentery, when you should know that for over half a century Pain-killer has cured millions of cases? Look out for imitations, there is only one genuine, "Perry Davis."

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER.

All the News Around Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Interestingly Told by T. J. W.

Glad to know that Mr. W. M. Bobb has so improved that he was able to attend church last Sunday.

Miss Alice Feagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Feagle, who is teaching at or near Saluda Old Town, visited her parents last Saturday and Sunday. Master George Callman came home last week and returned to Columbia on Sunday.

Messrs. R. H. Kibler and J. E. Long who have been working on the operative houses of the Mollohon cotton mill spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. H. S. B. Kibler, of Newberry, visited her parents last Sunday.

Mr. Rufus Sligh, in company with his aunt, Mary Sligh, stopped over with Mr. J. K. Epps and family last Sunday. Miss Mary remained with her friends and relatives until Thursday.

Dr. W. T. Dickert has completed his course of study at the medical college of Charleston and returned home last Sunday.

Mr. S. A. Rikard and family, of Long Lane, spent last Saturday and Sunday with relatives in this community.

Mr. Redman Kinard and sister Ida, of Newberry cotton mill, spent last Saturday night and Sunday among their kindred of this section.

Mr. R. N. Taylor spent Sunday night at Newberry.

It's getting time for some candidate to crack the ice. Who will be the first man? Remember, dear friends, "the early bird gets the worm," if he can manage to keep the hawks off. It will only cost you three dollars to plant your card in The Herald and News. We can't guarantee you a good stand, or at least a successful crop, but we can guarantee you that the people of Newberry County besides a great many other counties and States will find out what you are running for.

Another one of our good citizens has passed away. Mr. W. D. Halfacre died at his home near St. Phillips church on last Friday night, 28th ulto., age 44 years. The deceased was a man of noble character, and was esteemed very high by his neighbors and all who knew him. I knew him to be a man of good feeling. His heart and hand were always open to help the needy. The people, not only of his own surrounding, but a great many others will miss him. He was a member of St. Phillips church, and his body was quietly laid to rest in the graveyard there on Saturday following his death. Rev. J. J. Long conducting the burial services. The sermon was quite interesting and very much suited to the occasion. The large congregation present showed that the deceased was very highly esteemed by his many friends. He was twice married and leaves four surviving children, two by each marriage. May God bless the wife and orphan children, and I trust they will strive to gain that which their father left—a good name, character and reputation. Dear children, it will be better to gain this than the wealth of the whole world.

Our usual cold snap came after Easter this time, and it's doing up the fruit. Considerable frost on Wednesday morning with some ice.

Farm work is moving right along. Corn planting pretty general this week.

We hope that our church people all enjoyed the Easter services on last Sunday. It is a blessed privilege to meet in our respective places of worship in remembrance of our dying Saviour. Yes, the stone is rolled away. Death has yielded up its mighty prey. The only hope of our salvation hangs upon our crucified Saviour.

Our services at Colony last Sunday were rather sad. While the sermon was full of joy, peace and gladness, and while it was a blessed privilege to commemorate the suffering, death and resurrection of our blessed Saviour, it was quite sad to know that this was the parting sermon from our pastor whom the people of Colony church loved so well. Rev. Armstrong commenced breaking the bread of life to us about two years ago. He came as a perfect stranger. Some of the first work he did was to go around into the homes of his congregation which not only created personal acquaintance, but also much love and kindness, and this pastoral work shortly developed into a crowded church almost every preaching day. Rev. Armstrong is a man that will gain the influence of his people wherever he goes. His disposition is always mild and pleasant, and to know him simply means to love him. He did a good work in our church, and leaves behind a love that will be cherished in the hearts of many.

The close of the service was very sad, when he bid his congregation good bye and the choir sang "God be with you till we meet again."

LATER.

Miss Mary Lou Norris closed her school at Jolly Street last Friday until the summer session.

There will be communion services at St. Philip's next Sunday.

One case of your Newberry measles has developed in our section. Mr. Geo. J. Kinard is the sufferer. We look for plenty more in a short while.

Some few cases of whooping cough among the children.

Mrs. Thos. L. B. Epps has been suffering with a rising on her hand for the past week.

We learn that there will be communion at St. Paul's church on the third Sunday of this month.

Information comes that Mrs. Matt. Stone, of Jolly Street, will move to Newberry cotton mill tomorrow (Tuesday). This means one farm less.

Good people, if this state of affairs continues for a few years as it has for the past few months a majority of our white farmers will be at the cotton mills; and whenever this comes to pass there will be no scarcity of hay in the country. T. J. W.

REV. J. C. BOYD DEAD.

An Aged Minister of the Associate Reformed Church Passes Away.

Rev. James C. Boyd died Saturday morning at 3 o'clock at his home in New Stirling neighborhood, in Shiloh township. He was near 68 years old and had been in declining health for two years, having retired from the active work of the ministry during that time. The last three months of his life he was not able to be out of the house. Death resulted from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Boyd was born in Chester county, S. C., near Cornwall's. He graduated at Erskine College, Due West, S. C., and afterward graduated at the Erskine Seminary and entered the ministry of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. He had only two charges during his ministerial career. He was first pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at Prosperity, S. C., which charge he filled acceptably for 31 years, when he accepted a call to the pastorate of New Stirling church, which he served 12 years. After he had left Prosperity church its members extended him a call to return there.

Mr. Boyd was three times married. His first wife was Miss Pressly, of South Carolina, and his second was Miss Frances McIlhenny, of Laurens, S. C. His third wife, who survives, was Miss Mary Pressly, of York county, S. C., a sister of the late Rev. Wm. Pressly, who was for a long time pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Statesville. One daughter of the first marriage, Mrs. Perry Cook, of Newberry, S. C., survives, and a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Bruce, of Prosperity, S. C., and a son, Mr. J. E. Boyd, of Statesville, of the second marriage, also survive. A brother, Mr. John D. Boyd, of Cornwall's, S. C., and a sister, Mrs. Mattie Mills, of near Blackstock, S. C., also survive.

The deceased was a good and useful man and a faithful servant of the Master. The funeral services were conducted at New Stirling church Sunday at 11 o'clock by Revs. E. F. Griffith, W. Y. Love and J. H. Pressly, and the interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Perry Cook, of Newberry, S. C., was here to attend the funeral. Mr. Boyd was a member of the Knights of Honor. Statesville (N. C.) Landmark, 1st.

St. Paul's Items.

Communion service at St. Paul's church on the third Sunday of this month. Preparatory service at three o'clock p. m., Saturday previous.

St. Paul's Sunday-school elected officers for the year as follows: Superintendent, J. C. Auld; assistant superintendent, J. A. C. Kibler; secretary and treasurer, L. I. Epling.

Mr. L. I. Epling, son and daughter, John B. and W. L. Bedenbaugh and Hayne Wedeman, from this immediate community, went on the Newberry special to the Charleston Exposition. The report an enjoyable trip.

The St. Paul's grave yard committee will lay on Saturday before the third Sunday in this month at three p. m., to the lowest responsible bidder, the contract to clean off graveyard for the year.

Old man Push has been to the Exposition the past week. We went with the Newberry College crowd, and an orderly crowd it was. We boarded the train at Pomaria a little before ten a. m., and arrived in Charleston a little after three p. m. We visited Mt. Pleasant, went across to Sullivan's Island, stopped over at the Isle of Palms several hours.

We spent one day and part of a night in the Exposition, and one day seeing the sights in Charleston. No one should fail to go to the Exposition. The railroad fare is low and you can get good board and lodging at one dollar per day. Anyone would get paid thrice for going to the exposition. We met in Charleston Mr. W. P. Counts and Mr. Schuppert, jurors from this county to the United States court.

Mrs. M. J. Dickert and son, Ezra, spent Sunday with Mr. L. I. Epling's family.

We had the pleasure of a cordial hand shake with that Christian gentleman whom so many people in Newberry love to respect—the Rev. Mr. Scherer, who at present presides over the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mt. Pleasant, Charleston, S. C.

The prospect for a large fruit crop is good.

There will be some cotton planted this week.

The farmers are manuring their crops better this year than ever before.

Small grain is looking fine. We hope for an abundant harvest.

Best wishes to all. Push.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and the electric cure, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.

ROSY CHEEKS

A Sure Sign of Health.

Vinol Makes Rosy Cheeks and Rich, Red Blood.

A pale face is an indication of disease. There are many women who through overwork, worry or care find themselves in a weak, debilitated or run-down condition, which makes life a burden.

A continuation of this condition may induce lung troubles, stomach troubles, a broken-down condition of the kidneys or of the liver, or a derangement of those organs that are the source of so much suffering for women.

All such women should come in and see us, as we want to tell them about Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine. It contains nothing but the curative principles of God's Liver Oil, combined with a little organic iron and a delicious table wine, and as each of these ingredients have been used alone by our best physicians for years in treating general debility, bronchitis, consumption and all wasting diseases, it can be readily understood that the scientific combination of these three ingredients will produce wonderful results.

Vinol is especially good for women whose blood is thin and weak; it purifies and enriches the blood. It is also excellent for women who are nervous and worried because nervousness and worry always affect the stomach first, taking away the appetite, making the sufferer thin and languid. Vinol is so delicate it can be taken into the weakest stomach. The wine increases the appetite, and the medicinal elements of the cod's liver strengthens the muscles and adds flesh. Yet it contains no oil or grease and is deliciously palatable.

We know Vinol is a wonderful and powerful restorer, and in advising you to take it we know what we are talking about. Vinol is what we say it is; and if you are tired and all worn out do not let another day pass without getting a bottle of it.

Come in and see us and we will convince you that we are offering you health and strength in Vinol. Your money back if you are not satisfied.
